Article 1

Name

The church shall be known as GOSPEL LIGHT CHRISTIAN CHURCH (hereinafter referred to as "the Church").

Article 2

Place of Business

The place of business shall be at an address in the Republic of Singapore as decided upon by the Church and approved by the Registrar of Societies from time to time. The Church shall carry out its business only in places and premises which have the prior written approval of the relevant authorities.

Article 3

Objects

- 3.1 To worship God, through the Lord Jesus Christ, according to the Holy Scriptures;
- 3.2 To declare all the counsel of God, according to the Holy Scriptures.

Article 4

Doctrine

The Church holds to the great fundamental doctrines of the historic Christian faith, namely:

- 4.1 We believe in the plenary divine inspiration of the Scriptures in the original languages, their consequent inerrancy and infallibility and as the Word of God, the supreme and final authority in faith and life;
- 4.2 We believe in the one true eternal triune God, Father, Son and Holy Spirit;
- 4.3 We believe in the essential deity and the real and proper, but sinless humanity of our Lord Jesus Christ;
- 4.4 We believe that the Lord Jesus Christ, the eternal Son of God, was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the virgin Mary, and is true God and true man;
- 4.5 We believe in the Lord Jesus Christ's substitutionary, expiatory death, in that He gave His life "a ransom for many";
- 4.6 We believe in the Lord Jesus Christ's resurrection from the dead in the same body in which He was crucified and the second coming of the same Lord Jesus Christ, bodily, in power and great glory;

- 4.7 We believe that salvation is the effect of the sovereign grace of God in regeneration by the Holy Spirit and the Word, through faith, not of works;
- 4.8 We believe in the everlasting bliss of the saved, and the everlasting suffering of the lost;
- 4.9 We believe in the spiritual unity of all redeemed by the precious blood of the Lord Jesus Christ;
- 4.10 We believe in the necessity of maintaining, according to God's Word the purity of the Church, in doctrine and life; and still believing the Apostles' Creed to be a statement of Scriptural truth, we therefore incorporate in these articles of faith.
- 4.11 We believe that it is unbiblical for a female to hold office as Pastor, Elder or Deacon in the Church.

Article 5

Principle and Practice of Biblical Separation

- 5.1 God's Word clearly teaches that God's people ought to separate from every form of sin and unbelief, both in personal life as well as ecclesiastical association;
- 5.2 While all true believers are spiritually "one in Christ", being united with one another, and with Christ, the joining together of all and sundry "Christians" and others in ecumenical union is unbiblical and abominable in the sight of God;
- 5.3 The Church requires all its members to be Bible-believing Christians, and in loyalty to God's command, are therefore to oppose all that is false and contrary to the truth of God's Word;
- 5.4 The Church requires all its members to faithfully separate themselves from, all forms of sin and unbelief, and from any linkage or association with the Ecumenical Movement or any of its associating or supporting bodies (eg the Neo-Evangelical and the Charismatic Movements);
- 5.5 The Church requires all its members to heed God's commands to His people: not to be unequally yoked together with unbelievers, but to come out and be separate (2 Corinthians 6:14-17); to reprove and rebuke those who reject sound doctrine (2 Timothy 4:2,3); to have no fellowship with the unfruitful works of darkness (Ephesians 5: 11); not to receive or welcome false teachers (2 John 10, 11); to earnestly contend for the faith which was once delivered unto the saints (Jude 3);
- 5.6 The Church requires all its members to endeavour to uphold these principles of separation in love - love for Christ, His Church and those of His people who are unwittingly in unbiblical union.

Article 6

Principles of Government

The Church in setting forth the form of government which it maintains as being founded upon and agreeable to the Word of God, reiterates, by way of introduction, several cardinal principles which are basic to and regulative of its form of church government.

- 6.1 God has given men everywhere the free will to decide in all matters that concern religion; the rights of private judgement in this regard is universal and inalienable;
- 6.2 Our blessed Saviour, the Lord Jesus Christ, is the Head of the visible Church, which is His body, and for the edification of that visible Church, has appointed officers, not only to preach the Gospel and administer the Ordinances but also to exercise and impose discipline for the preservation both of truth and duty; it is incumbent upon these officers and upon the whole Church, in whose name they act, to censure or cast out the erroneous and scandalous, observing in all cases the rules contained in the Word of God;
- 6.3 The character, qualifications, and authority of church officers are clearly laid down in the Holy Scriptures, as well as the proper method of their investiture and institution;
- 6.4 All church power, whether exercised by the body in general or in the way of representation by delegated authority, is only ministerial and declarative; that is to say, the Holy Scriptures are the only rule of faith and conduct; no church court ought to pretend to make laws to bind the conscience in virtue of its own authority; all its decisions should be founded upon the revealed will of God.
- 6.5 If the preceding Scriptural and rational principles are steadfastly adhered to, the vigour and strictness of its discipline will contribute to the glory and happiness of any church. Since ecclesiastical discipline must be purely moral or spiritual in its object and not accompanied by any civil effects, it can derive no force whatever but from its own justice, the approbation of an impartial public, and the countenance and blessing of the great Head of the Church universal.

Article 7

Main Practices of the Church

- 7.1 BAPTISM: The observance of the baptism of believers is by immersion in water on personal confession of faith in the Lord Jesus Christ. However, in exceptional circumstances strictly on medical grounds, the Board of Elders may allow baptism by sprinkling or pouring of water.
